Articles of Agreement between the English in Connecticut and the Indian Sachems

A Covenant and Agreement made between the English inhabiting the Jurisdiction of the River of Connecticut of thee one part and Miantimony the Chief Sachem of the Narragansets in the behalf of himself and the other Chief Sachems there and Poquin or Uncas the Chief Sachem of the Indians called the Mohegans in the behalf of himself and the Sachems under him as followeth at Hartford ye 21st of September 1638

Imp^{er}: There is a peace and familiarity made between the said Miantinomie and the Narragansett Indians and the said Poquin and Mohegans Indians and all former Injuries and wrongs offered each to other remitted and buried and never to be renewed any more from henceforth.

It is Agreed if there fall out injuries and wrongs for future to be done or Committed each to other or their Men they shall not presently revenge it but they are to Appeal to the English and they are to Decide the same And the Deter= mination of the English to stand and they are each to do as is by the English to set down and if the one of the other refuse to do it shall be lawful for the English to compel them and to side and take part if they see cause against the obstinate or refusing party.

It is Agreed and a conclusion of peace and friendship made between the said Miantinome and the said Narragansetts and the said Poquin and said Mohegans as long as they carry themselves Orderly and give no Just cause of offence and that they nor either of them do Shelter any that may be Enemies to the English that shall or formerly have had hand in Murdering or killing any English Man or Woman or consenting thereunto they or either of them shall as Soon as they can either bring the Chief Sachem of our late Ene= =mies the Pequots that had the chief hand in killing the English to the said English or take off their heads As also for those Murderers that are not agreed upon amongst Us that are living they shall as soon as they can possible take off their heads if they be in their Custody or else whensoever they or any of them Shall

Shall come amongst them or to their Wigwams or any where if they can by any means come by them

And whereas there be or is Reported for to be said Narragansetts and Mohegans 200 Pequots living that are Men besides Squaws and Paposes The English do give unto Miantinome and the Narragansetts to make up the Number of Eighty with the Eleaven they have already and to Poquin his Number and that after they the Pequots shall be divided as aforesaid shall no more be called Pequots but Narragansetts and Mohegans and as their Men or either of them are to Pay for every Sannop One fathom of Wampampeag and for every Youth half so much and for every Sannop Papose one hand to bee paid at hilling time of Corn at Connecticut Yearly and shall not Suffer them for to live in the Country that was formerly theirs but now is the English by Conquest neither shall the Narragansetts nor Mohegans possess any part of the Pequot Country without leave from the English And it is always expected that the English Captives are forthwith to be delivered to the English not as belong to Connecticut to the Sachems there and such as belong to the Massachusetts The said Agreements are to be kept inviolable by the Parties aboveSaid and if any make breach of them the other Two may Joyn and make Warr upon such as shall break the same unless Satisfaction be made being reasonable required
